MINOR FIGURES

Plant-based • B Corp • Made in the UK

Discover why Minor Figures is trusted by the world's best coffee shops. At Minor Figures, everything we do is crafted for the love of coffee, the planet and community. We take care of our side of the cup so our partners can focus on theirs.

For us the future must be both delicious and sustainable. Oat milk has roughly four times less carbon impact than dairy, and we're proud to make our oat milk here in the UK, and be a B Corp certified company. We know we over-index with Millennial and Gen Z audience, and that they're driving the surge in oat consumption, with now over 1/3 of all coffees ordered being made with oat milk.

Try today, and go in the draw to win up to £250 cash back on your Minor Figures order!

A better way...

Infinity Foods Commodity News to the January - February 2025 Catalogue.

Many customers have asked if we could give an update on what's happening in the bulk commodities market. Why is everything so expensive now? Are prices going up again this year? Here's what our commodities guru Scott has to say....

The news in brief

Unpredictable weather conditions are still effecting crops worldwide. Shipping costs are still rising as ongoing conflicts disturb trade routes. New tariffs may come into place this year. Tighter regulations mean some suppliers are no longer importing into the EU/UK. Turkish lira is suffering from massive inflation rates.

Will I still be able to buy what I need?

Here's what we currently know about 2025 stocks. Rest assured, we'll always do our best to keep prices as low as possible.

Seeds

Quinoa-Stocks are tight as fewer suppliers can meet EU standards.

The UK crop struggled due to the poor weather

Sunflower seeds-Our preferred Eastern European ones are smaller this year due to a ridiculously hot summer(?). Pricing on these may be less consistent.

Pumpkin seeds-We have a pretty steady supply but these will need extra testing to make sure they pass OG standards.

Alfalfa seed-It looks like we are going to have to discontinue this due to poor sales and rising costs. Hemp seed-We are selling a high quality French variety. Beware the inferior Eastern European version!

Infinity Foods
Commodity News
to the January - February 2025 Catalogue.

Seeds - continued

Sesame seeds- The Pakistan/Indian crop was reduced by flooding. These are difficult to bring into the UK so many businesses have given up trading these seeds because of pesticide residues and failed testing.
Golden Linseed- A better crop than last year!
We should have a consistent source.

Nuts

Coconut-SE Asian and especially Sri Lankan bulk products are getting more difficult to source, expect price rises.
Almonds-We'll have to see how this years flooding will affect the latest crop. Pricing is still pretty stable.
Brazil nuts-Bolivian stocks are running low, we'll have a better idea when December's harvest starts.
Cashew nuts-Pricing has risen pretty high on the back of the poor West African harvest, there's no sign of these prices going down yet either.
Macadamia nuts-Kenya's small harvest means we're only offering halves and pieces
Pecan nuts-Prices are currently about 15% up, again due to shortages in the market.
Pistachios-See above!
Walnuts- These have been very cheap for 18 months but prices are going up due to, you guessed it, a reduced crop.
Peanuts-Good news here though! Plenty available from China and Egypt. They will still cost, erm, peanuts.

Infinity Foods
Commodity News
to the January - February 2025 Catalogue.

Fruit

Apricots-The pricing is actually lower than last season, which is good news.

Banana Chips-There's a slight price increase here, mainly due to increased journey time.

Cranberries-No changes at the moment.

Sour Cherries-Prices are stable but availability may be erratic, so we're rationing these.

Currants-A reduced crop due to the hot summer has pushed prices as high as we've seen in a while.

Dates- Availability and price seem pretty stable and in line with last year.

Figs-Most suppliers are offering smaller sized fruits this year.

Golden Berries, Ginger and Goji berries- Prices stable and good availability on all of these.

Mango Strips-A reduced crop in Burkina Faso means these may run out early this year. White Mulberries-Easy enough to get hold of but prices have risen a little.

Pitted Prunes- We'll have US Taylor Farms ones again. They're the best.

Sultanas and Raisins-As mentioned in the summary, issues with the Turkish economy are pushing prices up. Can't really see them coming down this year.

So, thankfully not all bad news.

We'll try to update you on any significant changes throughout the year.

If you need any further info on what's happening with any of our bulk products, just give the office a call on 01273456376

or email info@infinity.coop

We'll get back to you with an answer as soon as possible.

Infinity Foods Welcome to the January - February 2025 Catalogue.

Welcome to the latest edition of our catalogue

It replaces your current copy, so be sure to pop that in the recycling. Inside, you'll find all our latest deals or products. (Speaking of which, turn to the new products and offers for an at-a-glance view of what's new and on offer)

What's changed since last time?

On the left-hand side of each page, you'll see a shaded column where you can check what's changed since the last catalogue. We do everything we can to stick to the prices you see on the page, but sometimes events outside our control might mean they have to change. If this happens, we'll be sure to flag it clearly on your invoice.

Want to talk organic?

We label lots of our products as 'organic'. This means an official body, recognised by the EU, has certified the product. If you'd like more information about how this works, drop Charles Booth our Soil Association co-ordinator a message at: charles.booth@infinity.coop

* Forest Wholefoods - jar
New from Forest Wholefoods, three organic honeys packed in glass jars with clean bright labels. The honeys are produced in Bulgaria using traditional harvesting to retain all the natural enzymes, pollens, vitamins and minerals. The moderate climate with varied vegetation and ecological conditions produces world class honey. Raw Acacia Honey is delicate and mild with a light floral hint. Raw Lavender Honey is fragrant and calming with the scent of lavender blossoms. Raw Wildflower Honey has a robust, full bodied flavour with a mix of floral and fruity notes.

* Lion's Den
New from Lion's Den, two great tasting relishes. Both have a deep flavour from onions and shiitake mushrooms with cider vinegar, tamari, espresso coffee and miso. Lion's Den grow organic mushrooms in Hastings and convert them into delicious umami products that will lift any dish. Shiitake Relish is sweet, smoky, unctuous, tangy and very moreish. Chipotle Shiitake Relish tastes as good as the original with a mild spicy taste from chipotle chillis.

2. These Terms and Conditions will be deemed to have been accepted by you when you accept them or the quotation or from the date of any delivery of the Goods (whichever happens earlier) and will constitute the entire agreement between us and you.
3. These Terms and Conditions and the quotation (together, the Contract) apply to the purchase and sale of any Goods between us and you, to the exclusion of any other terms that you try to impose or incorporate, or which are implied by trade, custom, practice or course of dealing.

Interpretation

4. A "business day" means any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or bank holiday.
5. The headings in these Terms and Conditions are for convenience only and will not affect their interpretation.

8. We can make any changes to the specification of the Goods which are required to conform to any applicable safety or other statutory or regulatory requirements.

Price

9. The price (Price) of the Goods is set out in our quotation current at the date of your order or such other price as we may agree in writing.
10. If the cost of the Goods to us increases due to any factor beyond our control including, but not limited to, material costs, labour costs, alteration of exchange rates or duties, or changes to delivery rates, we can increase the Price prior to delivery.

Payment

18. We will invoice you for the Price either:
